

Daniel Wayne Sloan, D.B.A.

530.605.7459 | dansloan@alumni.usc.edu
<http://www.linkedin.com/in/dan-sloan/>

Mini Biography: Dr. Dan Sloan

Dr. Dan Sloan, DBA, MSF, MAT, MBA

ACADEMIC

Professor Sloan serves as a U.S. Department of State Specialist, former Georgetown University Fellow, and adjunct professor at Pepperdine University Caruso Law School. He specializes in LLM/MDR programs, educating legal professionals, academics, students, and scholars at the Straus Institute for Dispute Resolution

He also lives in California teaching Business Administration/Economics fulltime at Simpson University. Dr. Sloan directs a Masters of Organization Leadership Program.

He has taught at UCLA's American Language Center, at international universities, and served as academic faculty at several foreign U.S. Embassy and Consulate locations.

During his international service, Prof. Sloan spent almost a decade in China, Laos, and Southeast Asia where he educated and consulted the senior staff of foreign governments. His work included the ASEAN integration project; he has traveled the globe.

ENTREPRENEUR/BUSINESSPERSON

Dr. Sloan's entrepreneurial experience and professional business career include decades of business with Fortune 500 companies (Proctor and Gamble, Citi Bank, Microsoft, Boise, Philip Morris, Coke, the U.S. Military, and more). He has a diverse cultural and career history comprising numerous successful entrepreneurial endeavors.

EDUCATION

Professor Sloan's doctoral dissertation emphasizes the role of financial economics in Chinese currency internationalization.

He is currently studying graduate studies at Harvard University online (Economics). Prof. Sloan is a graduate of the University of Southern California (MAT TESOL), Golden Gate University (MBA & MS FIN), and a Simpson University dual major BA (Psychology/Business).

Students know him for his diverse experience in communicating complex topics: law, economics, mathematics, finance, statistics, entrepreneurship, and technological innovation. Dr. Sloan is also an expert in culture, pedagogy, andragogy, linguistics, phonetics, and English language teaching.

Daniel Wayne Sloan, D.B.A.

His non-academic life includes scuba diving, flying a private plane, skydiving, bass fishing, snow skiing, and trekking. Dr. Sloan has trekked on Mt Everest, Machu Picchu, and his scuba diving includes The Great Barrier Reef, Borneo, and other areas of the world. He serves as treasurer on The Good News Mission Board (Homeless shelter, addiction, domestic violence).